

Sergio Gomez, Artist, Curator & Creative entrepreneur

Sergio Gómez (Mexico) is a visual artist, curator and creative entrepreneur raised in Mexico City. Since 1988, he has resided in Chicago. He holds a Master's Degree in Visual Arts from Northern Illinois University. Sergio's work has been the subject of more than 45 solo exhibitions in the United States, Romania, Italy, Mexico and Vienna. He has participated in numerous group exhibitions in Spain, Sweden, Mexico, Austria, Italy, South Korea, England, Kairo, Belgium and the United States. Besides his studio work, Sergio Gómez is Curator and Director of Exhibitions at the Zhou B. Art Center in Chicago, Director and founder of 33 Contemporary Gallery, co-founder of Art NXT Level®, and founder of Amplified Art Network. He has curated over 100 exhibitions in the US and abroad. His weekly Art NXT Level podcast and Breakfast with Sergio video show inspires and educates contemporary artists from around the world.